

Every day is Singing day

Let's sing a song when we are in happy mood.

Let's sing a song when we are bummed out.

Tomorrow is another day. Tomorrow is another day.

Tomorrow is another day. I will do well.

Let's sing a song if we have peaceful minds.

Let's sing a song if we are feeling small.

That's the way life is. That's the way life is.

That's the way life is. I'll try again.

Everything will be all right. Everything will be all right

Everything will be all right. I'll believe in myself.
